REPRISE

I

Their screams will echo on a quiet night · Silver faces an unholy cathedral · Death has come · A sacrifice in this duality · The blessing is given as the children moan · A man is burdened with a life full of evil · Hungry eyes · They will not live to see another day · I'll end the feeling of a soul within, set it free in bloody ecstasy · Lie in the circle of a few who stain their bodies with their own blood

THE BAD THING

II

Sometimes there's a crack in the world that I can peer through to see it for what it really is · There's an ugly face staring back · Demons are everywhere · They draw the hatred from inside of me · There were times at the top of the earth that I wish I could throw everyone and everything · Watch the mountains snap the necks of the hypocrites · I'm bathing in the thought of it · The severed dreams of all the weak, quenching thirst inside of me · And the scream it holds the key, unlocking this for all to see · Fly past the trees · Ascend to holy air and breathe · Far from the leaves · Transcend these earthly boundaries · Fly past the trees · Ascend to holy air and breathe · Far from the leaves · Transcend their fucking boundaries · Isn't this desire that you're looking for? · Or is insanity just knocking on your door? · Give me just a piece and surely you will find, everything is better on the other side · Can you look within to find what is in store? · This life is but a scream that has become your whore · It's tearing a hole inside · You're buried alive · Sometimes there's a hole in the earth that I can step through to get away from the twisting of tongues · It looks a lot like a grave when I'm staring up · Feeling the soil creeping over me · There were times at the top of the earth that I wish I could throw everyone and everything

· Watch the mountains snap the necks of the hypocrites · I'm bathing in the thought of it · I'd like a reason just to help them bleed · Give me a reason · Fly past the trees · Ascend to holy air and breathe · Far from the leaves · Transcend these earthly boundaries · Isn't this desire that you're looking for? · Or is insanity just knocking on your door? · Give me just a piece and surely you will find, everything is better on the other side · Can you look within to find what is in store? · This life is but a scream that has become your whore · It's tearing a hole inside · You're buried alive · I'd like a reason just to help them bleed · Give me a reason

PRIESTESS

A shadow in these walls.. Yes that is all I am · A prison deep under fortress grounds where they spill the blood of man · A second chance at life is all I've dreamed of · For now inside these walls I stay · Sitting far away, I watch the blackness grow · Never mind what is underneath the stone · It's a life that we're living all alone · Step out in the rain and feel the deep sorrow · Light is calling from the narrow road · Sometimes kindness speaks in tongues with one of them · I can see love in her eyes · If I fall, death will never stain one of his hands · I find safety in these lies · A second chance at life is all I've dreamed of · For now inside these walls I stay · Sitting far away, I watch the blackness grow · Never mind what is underneath the stone · This life we live alone · Step out in the rain to feel a deep sorrow · Light is calling from the narrow road · The chains are part of me · Stale air is all I breathe down here · I need to find a way · I'm gonna find my way far from here... · Another chance at life is fading slowly · Upon the cross I burn · Sitting far away, I watch the blackness grow · Never mind what is underneath the stone · This life we live alone · Step out in the rain to feel a deep sorrow · Light is calling from the narrow road

I've held the knife to my throat for so long · Is it everything I want? · This life feels far away · Is this the time to let go and settle a life below? · Or live another fucking day? · Suffocating in a world of human filth · Yes pull me under · Stop treading in a pool of your own blood · Accept demise · Let it pour · Bleed it out · Feels as the life drains from within · A smile now rips open and paves a way in my sin · I feel Beelzebub inside me · He's been here all along · Clutching every last ounce of sin from these dried up bones · Please strike me down · Fuck me... I can't repent · By my own hands, I shall bury my own life · Let it pour · Bleed it out · Feels as the life drains from within · A smile now rips open and paves a way in my sin · My only love is worlds away · Thy father bless her and repay the breath they stole with all my hate · I drift away now in my sin · Let it pour · Bleed it out · Feels as the life drains from within · A smile now rips open and paves a way in my sin

HELL BELOW

Further I'm hurled down · The colors shift from red to gray · This is a realm of damaged spirits and I can't see the light... · Only the gaze of his eyes · The demons drag me down · Clawing for the heavens, they pull · I can feel them violently consuming me · No body, no mind, a spirit left to die · Finally they've collected me · The sound of misery in death has now begun · This is over · My death has now begun · Live, die, burn · Fucking live, die, burn · Further I'm hurled down · The colors shift from red to gray · This is a realm of damaged spirits and I can't see the light · Only the gaze of his eyes

I see a flash · Is this sleep? · Am I in a dream? · The past sees me and it won't let go · Greeted by those I've killed along the way, because I am the destruction · The past sees me and it won't let go · A demon born out of their rite in throes · This is the truth · I am a demon born out of their rite in throes · Soiled by the world of man · I am the destruction · I am fear · I am sin · I am the destruction · This memory ignites · The past sees me · Visions of me grow · Greeted by family · Painting dissolution and a life of an insect · The past it will not let me go · I'm lost within my own soul · A ghost within times of old · The clock turns back, but is this real? · Tell me, is this real? · A demon born out of their rite in throes · This is the truth · I am a demon born out of their rite in throes · Soiled by the world of man · I am destruction · I am fear · Born to destroy · Transcending boundaries of affliction · I've learned from past experience I am a monster · Disgust and horror flash before me in fire burning down below · Holy desire · This stain will never wash off of my grave · Physical life has wandered · Here I stay, in death · Take pity on a soul and grant me resurrection · Grant forgiveness · This is only but a dark reflection · Regret is ripping the throat from my neck · Now I can't speak · I wander · Here in death, I weep · Take pity on a soul and grant me resurrection · Grant forgiveness · This is only but a dark reflection · Hell bound · Past death · Nothing can save me · Longing for something beyond · Embrace the feeling of a soul within · Realizing this is what we need · Inside the circle that's a mystery to our eyes and what we shall perceive · Stop bleeding on the inside · We are alive, and it's more than enough to paint the walls that are white · Can we show the ones who are blind? · Show them that we're not blind

STRANGER THINGS

Wandering below the hadean seal · Shaking, mortified, making my way back to nowhere · This skeletal mask brings a demon of the day · There never would have been a light if the messenger in still life had regard for the son of the damaged soul · Send the mirror falling · Heavens see that this man once had value among all the golden · But eccentric revisions in life brought on decay · Take submission from a man in control · Set the sail blowing, search for peace · A loose feeling consuming me · Blood is spent · A token for my sacrifice · Fallen angel, you speak my name · The needle turns, the hourglass is spinning around · Give it, I want it... a sense of a fucking life · I can almost feel mine at home · Selfish cries · I am diseased · Let it pour out and show what has healed · One can finally find what's left in this masochistic personality · In a holy bond we live · Take a breath for seconds in this moment · Sail upon the open skies · Exhale your death and feel life, like water raining from above · Majestic aura · Take in my breath and lock eyes with a world once absent of your love · Majestic aura · Blood is spent · A token for my sacrifice · The tortured realm has released my name · I can feel my body parting with this world · Rebirth is starting from within · I'm born some place beyond your time · Selfish cries · Flaunt disease · Own what's mine · Death upon my knees · Let it pour out and show what has healed · One can finally find what's left inside this masochistic personality · In a holy bond we live · Take a breath for seconds in this moment · Sail upon the open skies · Floating up above the hadean seal · Sounds of ambient voices will lead me from nowhere · This skeletal mask brings a demon of the day
